CONSERVATIVE SPEAKS

J. B. HARTMAN OBJECTS TO HASTILY CONSIDERING CHANGE IN NUMBERING

Another and quite a different adviser on the naming and numbering of the streets of Greater Glendale has appeared in the person of M. B. Hartman, who has exhibited at the office of the Evening News a map of the City of Genoa which is one of the oldest and one of the most irregular of the cities of Europe, with no common center. Mr. Hartman is conservative and objects to hastily considering changes. "No one loses himself in these old cities," he declared. "Why then should we make such great effort to save people from getting lost in small cities like Glendale and Tropico? To make Brand the dividing line is absurd, because it begins nowhere and ends nowhere. Glendale boulevard on the contrary is a thoroughfare which you can follow from Los Angeles through to La Canada, Montrose and other distinct points. I do not like to see things disturbed. We cannot satisfy everybody, and I suggest that this matter be turned over to the pupils of the primary school for study and when they come to manhood they will perhaps be able to make changes which will be satisfactory to everybody.

"Glendale is a new city. Five or six years ago the drift was all to the west and the east was neglected. We build houses. They stand for fifteen or twenty-five years and then they become second or third rate and the people who occupy them now will then either rebuild or move somewhere else. The moneyed class will go into the foothills to the east and north.

"Business swings like a pendulum. It will come back to Glendale avenue and Broadway and to Colorado, especially Colorado because that is on the Foothill boulevard.

"The great mistake we made here was that we allowed people to plat a few acres to suit themselves. Some blocks are 300 feet long, others 400 or more. If the city had insisted that all who wished to join it should make their plats conform to other streets laid out before, Broadway would not be disfigured as now. As it now runs it ends at Central avenue.

"Now that Tropico has come in I would make that South Glendale and leave its numbering system undisturbed. Then it would not be necessary to make changes in Glendale. When Casa Verdugo comes in that could be made North Glendale.

VIGILANT GUARDING

As showing how closely the manufactories of war materials are guarded a Glendale boy who works for the Los Angeles Red Cross states that when the location of headquarters was changed to Tenth and Main, that he started to drive his truck load of supplies into the alley for more convenience in unloading, but before he could enter out sprang a uniformed guard with bayonet poised and demanded his pass. He had none so was compelled to drive around to the front to unload. The reason for this watchfulness was that the Wright-Martin aeroplane company is just across the alley and it is guarded day and night to prevent destruction by pro-German fiends.

GO TO CLAREMONT

Glendale is interested in the plans of Mrs. E. H. Willisford, as well as of her husband who is to leave for France next week, and they will be glad to learn that she has taken a bungalow at Claremont, where her daughter Carol is attending Pomona College. Her little daughter Joy will be with her there, also her father, J. E. Ashbaugh. Mr. Willisford is to start Wednesday and Mrs. Willisford and daughters will leave the following Thursday or Friday. The family will be together for Christmas, and Mrs. Willisford hopes her affairs will so shape themselves that she can return to Glendale at the close of the school year. The family will be missed and will be warmly welcomed when they return.

HEARD FROM BROTHER SAM

W. F. Nash, the grocer, was quite pleased to receive a telephone message Thursday from his brother Sam, who is General Freight and Passenger Agent of the Texas Pacific Railway for California, Oregon and Washington. He had been holding down the San Francisco office for a few days, the regular agent having been called to the colors. When he telephoned he was in Los Angeles on his way to make up the neglected work in other business centers.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Sunday. Westerly winds.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

PHILATHEA CLASS OF THE M. E. CHURCH PRESENT "THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM"

The big audience which gathered in the First Methodist church of Glendale Friday night for the Christmas entertainment was indebted to Mrs. Ricksecker and the girls of the Philathea class for an unusual and beautiful Christmas celebration. It was a beautiful staging of the "Star of Bethlehem" and neither a play, in the modern acceptance of the term, nor a cantata as usually presented. It had the dignity and serious simplicity of the miracle plays intensified by the classic character of the music.

As a prelude the beginners in the primary department, little tots whom the audience metaphorically hugged because they were so dear, sang very sweetly a song about "The Little Lord Jesus." Then Mrs. Ricksecker was asked to explain the play about to be produced which she did in the following words:

"The cantata known as 'The Star of Bethlehem' needs no explanation as it is the old, old story which is so well known yet which is ever new at this season.

"The herald, according to ancient custom, comes and announces why we are here. This inspires a song of rejoicing given by the little pupils.

"The angels appear and start the shepherds on their quest. The Wise Men come singing on their way and present gifts to the new born king. The shepherds again appear, their numbers augmented by curious followers eager to learn what the commotion is about. They reach the manger and present their gifts and form a tableau including Mary and Joseph, beggars and followers.

"The music is especially worthy of note. You will remark the absence of swing and dash of the present day. Instead we have the melody and dignity that marked the music used in early Christian worship. One of the carols was in use in the sixth century, and the beautiful chant sung by the Wise Men was used by the Benedictine monks more than six hundred years ago, in their Christmas services. The organ interlude coming between the shepherd's chorus and the journey of the shepherds is of modern composition yet of peculiar interest. One note sounds almost continuously through the entire composition and is in perfect harmony with all other notes, and as the Star guided the wise men, so this note is the guiding theme of the whole production. It is known as 'The March of the Magi.'"

Mrs. Ricksecker explained that every effort had been made to avoid any expense in connection with the production to the end that the donation of the Sunday School to the Armenian Relief fund might be the larger. All costumes had been made at home, and if they fell short of what was needed, she hoped the audience would pardon.

She need not have apologized as the effect in the half light in which the cantata was given was perfect.

Jennie Lacy very satisfactorily filled the hole of the herald. Very beautiful were the angels robed in white with shining wings and crowns. Sweet and serious they looked as they descended to the stage and sang to the wondering shepherds, while glory shown around. These angels were Misses Leone Shattuck, Marie Swartz and Margaret Lusby. The shepherds were Clorinda Corbin, Jessie Shepard, Gladys Harding, Verne Wilson, Wilbur Lee, Bessie Ross and Helena Swartz.

Doctors Charles and Ralph Lusby and Arthur Haynes were the Wise Men, and the antiphonal choral was sung by the children of the Intermediate Department. James McBride took the character of Joseph, and Mrs. Lusby was "Mary."

One of the most beautiful solos was "Rock the Cradle Lowly" by Miss Isgrig. Marian Addison and Mrs. Starkey were the beggars.

When the audience was dismissed Mrs. Ricksecker and the performers were showered with testimonials of appreciation. It was certainly a beautiful and fitting Christmas celebration, and their satisfaction was complete when they learned that the contributions to the Armenian fund would amount to $85.00.

WANT TO SHARE GOOD WORKS

Mrs. A. M. Beamon wishes us to announce that at least six ladies from the Catholic church will be delegated to help at Red Cross headquarters. Mrs. Beamon says the Catholic ladies are very much gratified at the spirit of appreciation shown their work and willingness to help, and are determined to do their part in working for the boys who are at the front.

BOLSHEVIKI "GOVERNMENT" SENDS TROOPS AGAINST SOLDIERS WHO REFUSE TO OBEY ORDERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

STOCKHOLM, December 22.—A great battle on the streets of Petrograd was reported from the Russian capital today. Four army corps refused to obey the order of the Bolsheviki to leave the city. The Bolsheviki sent other troops against them. Bloody fighting is still in progress as this dispatch was filed in Petrograd. Further details are unavailable.

HUNT DECLARED ARIZONA GOVERNOR

SUPREME COURT HANDS DOWN DECISION CLOSING LONG CONTROVERSY ON ELECTION RESULT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PHOENIX, Arizona, December 22.—The Supreme Court seated George W. P. Hunt as governor of Arizona today. The decision of the Court on the contest instituted by Hunt against Campbell and appealed from a lower court was unanimous.

The controversy began in 1916 when Campbell, Republican, was declared elected governor by the small margin of 30 votes. Hunt contested the election and was beaten in the lower courts. He then appealed to the Supreme Court and today's decision was the result of that appeal.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PETROGRAD, December 22.—Ukrainian troops have taken up their position along the border. All Ukrainian Cossacks have been ordered to mobilize and a far-reaching revolutionary movement against the Bolsheviki government seems to have been set definitely into action today.

Reports say the Workmen and Soldiers' Soviet at Kieff declared its support of Ukrainian demands for independence.

LEWIS BLAMES CROZIER

INVENTOR OF MACHINE GUN SAYS U. S. CHIEF OF ORDNANCE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR SHORTAGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, December 22.—Responsibility for ordnance and rifle shortage in the American army was laid to Gen Crozier, chief of ordnance, today by Col. Isaac Lewis, inventor of the Lewis machine gun.

"Gen. Crozier is responsible more than any other man for the obsolete equipment and lack of equipment of the American army today," he declared. In a dramatic declaration that America is not fighting the battles of the allies but the battles of America, he asserted, "It is a shame and an outrage that American troops have to beg artillery from France, already near bankruptcy and bled white."

FRANCE TO GLENDALE

OMAR BURT RICHARDSON SPENDING CHRISTMAS WITH HIS MOTHER IN GLENDALE

From the battle fields of France to Glendale was just a seventeen days' trip for Glendale's first native son to serve his country, to reach home.

Omar Burt Richardson, son of Ella W. Richardson, of 805 S. Central avenue, gave his family the most delightful surprise Thursday evening.

John Logan and family met his train in Pasadena and he was in his home and in his mother's arms before the family could believe their eyes. The only desired Christmas cheer they wanted was a letter from him and Glendale friends will rejoice in this good news. Burt will be at home to them Sunday afternoon.

Burt will return to France to serve under Pershing in the American Army after a three weeks' visit in Glendale. His brother, Will left for the service at Camp Lewis less than two weeks ago. Will produced several hundred sacks of potatoes and three thousand sacks of sugar from his farm this year for his country.

A HEARTLESS ACT

A peculiarly flagrant instance of heartless thievery came to our notice quite recently. A Glendale citizen, N. J. Wright, 1330 Colorado, who had worked hard all summer to raise a crop of beans had 300 pounds of them stolen one night just after he had laboriously cleaned them ready for selling. If it had only been a few sacks of gold or silver coin it would not have been so bad, but beans, precious white beans, at prevailing prices—that made it unforgiveable.

WEDDING AT METHODIST PARSONAGE

A charming though very simple wedding, but one which everybody thoroughly enjoyed, even the bride and groom who are often so tired and nervous from ceremonies and festivities that they cannot enter fully into the festivities of their own nuptials, was celebrated Friday at high noon at the Methodist parsonage in Glendale. The contracting parties were Harold J. Stonier and Miss Lucile B. Holderness, of Alhambra. The bridal party included the bride's mother, Mrs. M. C. Holderness and her brother Sidney, Kenneth Stonier, brother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Snyder of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Dyer, of Huntington Park, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Goodrich, of Hollywood, uncle and aunt of the groom, also of course Mr. and Mrs. B. Dudley Snudden.

The friendship of the Snuddens and the Dyers with the groom dates back to 1905 when they were all at Santa Maria and learned to know and love each other, and the acquaintance has been renewed and cemented since fate brought them into association here, for the groom is now at the head of the Department of Public Speaking at Manual Arts High School in Los Angeles, his bride being teacher of Commercial Art in Polytechnic High in the same city.

It was quite natural therefore that Mr. and Mrs. Snudden should wish to have the wedding occur at their home which was beautifully decorated with ferns and carnations, and that Mr. Snudden should officiate.

To the stately measures of the beautiful Lohengrin wedding march, played by Mrs. Snyder, the bride advanced to the waiting clergyman on the arm of her brother, the groom being attended by his brother.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the party adjourned to Ye Ginger Tavern where a dainty wedding breakfast, charming in all its appointments, was beautifully served.

After that the young people drove by auto to Alhambra where they took a train for "somewhere in the United States." They expect to live in Alhambra and will be at home at the close of the Christmas holidays, because Mr. Stonier must then return to his school duties.

EXEMPTION WORKERS

ATTORNEYS AND SCHOOL TEACHERS ASSIST MEMBERS OF EXEMPTION BOARD

The headquarters of the Exemption Board in the Chamber of Commerce presented a busier appearance this forenoon than they have done any previous morning, which shows that the admonitions of Mr. Lanterman are beginning to take effect.

Attorneys Mackay, Flint, Muhleman and Spencer were in attendance to help registrants and an additional helper who has voluntarily come to the assistance of the Board was Miss Bessie L. Field, of 239 South Kenwood avenue, who was acting as Spanish interpreter for several Mexican registrants.

Mrs. Jackson the Chief Clerk, was busy as usual doing a little of everything and keeping in shipshape the general routine business of the office, particularly the classification list, receipting for telegrams, etc.

At the long table engaged in clerical work were Miss Annie L. McIntyre, principal, and Misses Elizabeth Edwards and Susan Cooper, teachers in the Central avenue school. Friday night four ladies from the Glendale schools gave their services for similar work, viz. Dora L. Gibson, head of the Music Department, and Miss Enid Fenton of Union High, Edith Tyler and Bertha Berry of the Columbus avenue schools. This service is the most generous because all have had a busy week attending the Teachers' Institute in Los Angeles and have had little chance for a holiday vacation.

Mr. Lanterman reports that only about 25 registrants have been classified thus far. The Board is the final authority on classification. When classification is made, the registrant receives a card posted the day the classification is fixed, notifying him of the class to which he has been assigned. If he is not satisfied, he has the right to appeal which he can only make by appearing at headquarters and filling out the appeal blank of the Questionnaire. Wives and mothers dependent on registrants are coming with them in greater numbers to make affidavits to facts.

GLENDALE'S FLOAT

For many reasons the committee which has in charge the preparation of the float which Glendale is to enter in the New Year Floral Parade at Pasadena, are very anxious that Glendale citizens should feel responsibility and take stock of their floral possessions, letting the committee know what they can contribute to the decoration of the entry. This means much to the city, for we do not want Glendale to make a poor showing in an affair of this kind where thousands gather to admire and pass judgment. It is also important because a special effort is being made to make this Tournament of Roses the biggest and finest tournament that has ever been held, because the proceeds are to go to the Red Cross.

Ferns and suitable greenery of any sort will be needed and white flowers of every description by the thousands, roses, carnations, Shasta daisies, lilies, and carnations will all be welcome.

Mrs. H. S. Duffield of 1222 Lomita, is actively promoting the Glendale float, and will be glad to hear from any one who is willing to contribute. Her telephone number is Glendale 28-W. A large number of automobiles have been placed at the disposal of the committee which will scour the city December 31st collecting the floral offerings.

As usual the High School is responding in a splendid way. Thirty-two of its girl students will take part, and some of the young men. They will be taken to and from Pasadena and be carefully chaperoned.

It will be a military parade in which hundreds of soldiers will take part, and should prove a great stimulant to patriotism.

GUESTS FROM WISCONSIN

Mrs. F. R. Buchanan, of 204 South Orange street, will have a happy Christmas as she is entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hahn of Hartford, Wisconsin, and her aunt, Mrs. C. Kuhefus, of the same place, who arrived last Friday and who will spend the winter with her. They are delighted to get back to California, with which they are familiar, and have practically forsaken Wisconsin, where temperatures were very low when they left. They are planning to spend the summer in Oregon.

Do not strive to be odd, but aim to be yourself and in being yourself, guard against being eccentric and obnoxious to others.

"MAKE IT A RED CROSS CHRISTMAS"

Los Angeles, Cal., December 20, 1917.

Mrs. Mabel Ocker,
200 Central Ave., Glendale, Cal.

Dear Mrs. Ocker:

Let me again offer my congratulations for the splendid work you are doing in securing new members in Glendale. It is certainly most encouraging, and your efforts have placed you well toward the top of the list. I am counting on you for a thousand new members in this Drive, and I want to urge you to use every effort to get them, as our strong chapters will have to redouble their activities to help make up the deficit from some of the weaker organizations.

Will you please let me know on receipt of this letter just how many more new members you feel sure of securing, so that we may be able to make a close estimate of our position at the end of this week.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN McWILLIAMS, JR.,
Campaign Manager.

To the Campaign Managers in the Southern California Section Christmas Red Cross Membership Drive:

The following is the relative standing on a percentage basis of the 37 Chapters of the Southern California Section in the "American Red Cross Christmas Membership Drive," based on new members reported to this headquarters at 4 o'clock December 20th.

Claremont, 110 per cent; Monrovia, 95 per cent; Calexico, 92 per cent; Fullerton, 90 per cent; Glendale, 82 per cent; Alhambra-San Gabriel, 75 per cent; Whittier, 74 per cent; Ojai Valley, 70 per cent; Sierra Madre, 60 per cent; Paso Robles, 60 per cent; Upland, 52 per cent; Long Beach, 50 per cent; Santa Ana, 43 per cent; San Bernardino, 39 per cent; San Pedro, 36 per cent; Pasadena, 32 per cent; Pomona, 30 per cent; Anaheim, 28 per cent; Barstow, 27 per cent; El Centro, 27 per cent; Santa Barbara, 23 per cent; Riverside, 22 per cent; Redlands, 22 per cent; Santa Monica, 17 per cent; Chino, 12 per cent; San Luis Obispo, 12 per cent; San Diego, 12 per cent; Santa Maria, 8 per cent; Colton, 7 per cent; Cucamonga, 5 per cent; Newport-Balboa, 4 per cent.

Banning commences Drive on Friday; Rialto commences Drive Thursday. Needles, Ontario and Ventura, no report.

Los Angeles City, which has an allotment of 85,000 new members, reported the first day of the Drive 5,100; the second day 7,000 and the third day, which is our last report, 8,350. This rate of progression is very encouraging and places Los Angeles with 20,450 ahead of San Francisco, which reported for the first three days a total of 18,000.

Southern California Section as a whole, however, is behind its quota and success is possible only if each unit secures its entire quota.

JOHN McWILLIAMS, JR.,
Campaign Manager.

San Francisco, Calif., Dec. 21, 1917.

Chairman Christmas Drive Am. Red Cross,
Glendale.

National headquarters emphatically urges all old members be vigorously solicited for renewal of membership during Drive to the end that all dues hereafter may near as possible become due Christmas Day, thus making Red Cross and Christmas synonymous. Chapter reports with few exceptions indicate quotas will be exceeded.

MILK ADVANCE PROBABLE

Glendale dairymen are very much afraid that the high price of feed and other conditions affecting production will make it necessary for them to advance the price of milk in the near future, when it is probable that 14 cents will be charged against 12 cents now collected by the dairymen. They declare that the figures at which they have been selling not only have left no margin of profit, but have caused actual loss. The alfalfa hay for which they have paid $14 to $15 in the past per ton is now bringing $31, and the feeding of grain at present prices is almost out of the question. Delay in the rains which usually begin in November has made the situation acute. If we can have rain and warm weather to bring forward the green feed, it will help considerably. At present the only relief for the dairymen is to divide their losses with consumers by increasing the price, and they hope milk users will understand the matter and accept it with philosophy.

A CORRECTION

Los Angeles, Dec. 21, 1917.
The Glendale Evening News,
Glendale, California.

To the Editor:

Some references to Christian Science contained in a lecture on "New Thought," which you recently printed need correction. Christian Scientists do not claim that "New Thought is all taken from Christian Science;" they agree with the lecturer's statement that "there is a decided difference."

It is entirely untrue that "Mrs. Eddy forbade her students reading anything but that which came from her own pen." If the lecturer has the slightest acquaintance with the Christian Scientist movement and with Christian Scientists she must know the futility of such a statement, as well as the uselessness of her endeavor to associate the teachings of Mrs. Eddy with the teachings of Dr. P. P. Quimby. This myth has been exploded so often that I wonder whoever furnished you the account of the New Thought lecture had the temerity to expect that you would print it.

Mrs. Eddy asserts that she discovered Christian Science in 1866, after twenty years research to prove all causation to be mental and spiritual. The truth as to her discovery and the events preceding it will be found in her writings. Interested inquirers are referred to Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, pages 107 to 110, and to Retrospection and Introspection, page 24 and following. These books can be found in any public library or Christian Science reading room.

EXCELLENT RECORDS

Wherever roads run the Maxwell car makes a record, whether it be in America, Canada, Spain, Australia or in Africa. The latest World's record attained by a Maxwell stock touring car was for gasoline economy in South Africa.

The De Volkstem of Johannesburg just received by mail has the following regarding the Maxwell record:

"The most remarkable demonstration of gasoline consumption that ever took place in Africa was held September 6 under the direction of Mr. Jonnes of Connock's garage. A stock Maxwell car on which was attached a red one gallon tank, sealed by the Municipal Department of Weights and Measures of this city, ran to Pretoria, 35 miles, at an average speed of 18 miles an hour.

"Gasoline consumption amounted to 44.9 miles on one gallon.

"This makes the best record for this territory and the Maxwell deserves all honor for the low consumption."

Road and economy records of the Maxwell cars have awakened the public to the idea of conserving the country's supply of gasoline.

OUR SONS

Our boys are gone.
The place is drear,
Things seem to be,
All out of gear.

When they were home,
The house was bright,
From early morn,
Until the night.

Now all is still,
No song is heard,
Cheery whistle,
Or joyous word.

I miss them so,
Each loving lad,
The awful silence,
Leaves me sad.

But soon the time,
Will pass away,
Until our boys—
Come home to stay.

Oh! Savior guard,
Them now till then,
And help them prove,
Their worth as men.

LITTLE FOLKS' CHRISTMAS

The primary class of the Congregational Sunday School, of which Mrs. Edmund Yard has charge, had a very pretty Christmas celebration at the Church Friday afternoon and entertained an audience which filled the auditorium. It was just the kind of Christmas festival that small boys and girls enjoy, with a beautiful Christmas tree well to the fore and a chimney down which Santa could come. Pastor Willisford, so soon to leave for the French front, spoke a few appropriate words, and a nice Christmas program of songs and recitations was given. Mrs. Yard was aided in directing the entertainment by Mrs. Robert Bullinger, assistant in the Primary Department of the Sunday School, by Mrs. George Lyons, pianist, and by Mrs. Ernest Schuyler, Cradle Roll Superintendent.

NO CHRISTMAS TREE

Members of the Twin City Lodge, Knights of Pythias, had planned to have a Christmas tree which they would share with the Pythian Sisters, but on canvassing the calendar of social events they found the week so full and so many Christmas trees on the program, they decided to cut it out for this year.

Personals

The Glendale Home Gardeners will meet at their headquarters, 1017 Broadway tonight.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Wilcox, 1004 West Third Street a 7½-pound girl, Wednesday, December 19.

Evangeline Hunchberger and Mildred Wight, of Eagle Rock, who with Carol Willisford have been attending Pomona College, are home for the holidays.

Mrs. Hayden, niece of Mrs. J. S. Ripley, of Tropico avenue, has come down from Washington and will spend the winter with her aunt in Tropico.

Mrs. R. C. Newton is very ill at her home, 308 Belmont street, with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism and is under the care of a physician and nurse.

S. W. Brown of the Henry-Brown Company, 702 W. Broadway, Glendale, manufacturers of soda beverages, is in San Francisco enjoying a ten days' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew, Alice, Margaret and Charles Andrew, of 329 North Maryland, will spend Christmas day in Los Angeles with the parents of Mr. Andrew.

Walter Weldon, son-in-law of John Crane of Glendale avenue, has returned to California after a year's absence in Rock Island, Illinois. He and Mrs. Weldon are now residing in Los Angeles.

President Wilson has asked that every home on Christmas eve at 7 o'clock shall display a service flag in the window with a lighted candle behind it. In Glendale there will be many such illuminations.

Yeomen of Tropico seem determined to have plenty of dancing for the holidays. Their regular monthly dance has been announced for the 28th of December and it is rumored that they will also have an informal party the 31st to dance the old year out.

Captain J. D. Shaw, father of Mrs. Hallie E. Ilse, of West Ninth street, who has been ill at the Glendale Sanitarium for several weeks, is improving and is now able to sit up part of the day. He is very hopeful of being able to be with his family on Christmas.

The Junior Department classes of the Christian Sunday School were entertained Friday afternoon by the teachers. A program of games and music and a mild treat kept things going nicely. The children very readily gave up the elaborate treat of former years in order to send all the money possible to Armenian sufferers.

Among the Christmas guests who are seure of a warm welcome is Jim Henry Ilse, who is to arrive tonight and remain to spend Christmas with his mother at 114 West Ninth street. Jim Henry belongs to the Signal Corps of the 114th Telegraph Battalion at Monterey, and has a big circle of friends in Greater Glendale who will be delighted to welcome him.

Among those attending the funeral Friday of Fred S. Evans, of 8301 Compton avenue, Los Angeles, was Robert Jackson, a neighbor and friends. While in Glendale he hunted up his former fellow townsman, O. L. Kilborn, of 1317 Lomita avenue, whom he had not seen for ten years. He had the misfortune to lose his wife a few months ago in a very distressing accident, her clothes taking fire, causing fatal injuries.

FAMILY DINNER PARTY

Mrs. Louise B. Simon, of 1317 Hawthorne street, has been made happy by the news that her son Sidney, will arrive from San Diego, where he is serving in the 143d Field Artillery, and will be with her until next Wednesday. She is giving a little family dinner tonight in celebration of his coming at which covers will be laid for six, the guest including besides Sidney, Mr. and Mrs. George Foss, Miss Grace Beach and C. E. Higley.

RED CROSS NEWS

The Catholic ladies sewed Friday afternoon on comfort kits, Mrs. Beamon in charge. This fellowship of all the church people in this great work is very gratifying.

is protecting the boys who will fight for the freedom of the world, and their dependents, by the finest system of insurance ever devised. Of course the boys themselves will pay only a small fraction of its real cost, in money, but that's as it should be.

Are we who stay at home protecting our families as we ought? There are very few men but are largely under-insured. We are in less danger of an untimely death, so we should also make good provision for old age. That can not be done in any way so systematically, securely and cheaply as by "Provident" Endowments. If you would hear the testimonials we get regarding these from people who have matured them, you would want at least one policy.

XMAS CELEBRATION

BAPTIST CHURCH CROWDED AT REAL, OLD-TIME CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT

Did the kiddies of Glendale ever have such a wonderfully good time as they did Friday night at the Glendale Baptist church? We don't know. They may have had, but if they ever had it must have been "some" time, for Friday night the litle ones held the center of the stage, the main auditorium as well as the balcony of the church. The very finest thing of the evening for the little tots however, was dear old Santa Claus. He was there in all his glory, and although they did not see his reindeer, the boys and girls heard his bells, saw his smiling face and received of the many gifts that he brought with him for good little children.

This was the Christmas entertainment of the Sunday School and long before the opening number was given the church was crowded. Those attending seemed to be so eager for a real, old-time Christmas occasion that they came and were in their seats before the hour appointed for the program to start—something altogether new for Glendale. For the occasion the church was decorated with a profusion of pepper boughs, ferns, smilax and red flower—the color scheme of the evening being red and green. Located in the corner at the rear of the platform was a mammoth Christmas tree, which was a delight to the expectant eyes of the hundred or so of little tots who were present. Never did this church look prettier than it did last evening.

One of the features of the evening was the potato collection. A barrel was located at the door and as the folks passed into the edifice their donations of one potato each were placed within the barrel, Mr. C. F. Latter, officiating as collector. The word had been circulated that for the child bringing the largest potato a prize would be given, and with the aim of winning this each person brought the largest spud they could find. When the stream of spuds ceased it was found that the barrel was almost full. The fight for the prize centered around two mammoth "murphies" and when the selection was put up to the audience the prize was awarded to little Meeke Harashimi, one of the little Japanese members of the school.

It was about 9 o'clock that the bells of Santa Claus were heard, and a few minutes later, while all lights were out excepting those on the trees and a large star, which was used for one of the numbers, the much-beloved friend of the children appeared on the balcony at the left side of the platform, from which he greeted those present. Then, with his mammoth stocking of good things slung on his back, he carefully made his way down the ladder which led to the platform. After talking for a moment to the children he asked the little ones up to the platform and without hardly waiting for this invitation the tots swarmed about him while he passed out to them socks of candy, apples and horns. The lights were then turned on and Santa Claus and his helpers went about the audience distributing the good things to the children first, and later to the older "kiddies."

The program rendered was one of the best ever given in the Baptist church, this having been arranged under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Jordan. This program consisted of the following numbers:

Hymn, "Joy to the World," Congregation.

Scripture Reading and Prayer by Rev. Cowsert.

CHRISTMAS GIRL

From a reliable source the Evening News learns that a dear little eight-pound girl arrived Friday night at the home of Dr. Clinton Burrows, 218 South Jackson street. She has been named Lillian Belle and is the only daughter of her parents, though she has a twelve-year-old brother, Clinton, Jr. She is the more welcome because the Burrows lost a little girl about eight years ago. The doctor is exceedingly happy over this Christmas gift which has come to his home.

Speedy—Efficient—Economical | Makeshift—Unreliable—Costly | Slow—Uncertain—Costly

Today,—8 out of 10 merchants need motor trucks and don't realize it;—that's why their business 8 times out of 10 is falling behind their competitors',—for want of motor trucks.

When you realize what a motor truck will do for your business, don't make the mistake of taking on the burden of too big a truck; don't buy a makeshift, and don't wait too long to buy.

To-day you can get a Maxwell One-Ton, Worm-Drive Truck for several hundred dollars less than you can buy any other one-ton truck of equal specifications. How long this low price will last, no one can tell.

We expect to sell Maxwell trucks at a premium in a few months.

Maxwell Truck Costs Less To Operate

Besides this lowest first cost, a Maxwell Truck has the lowest upkeep cost of any real truck, even lower than horses.

—it uses very much less gasoline per mile, with or without load,

—it weighs hundreds of pounds less than any other one-ton truck,

—is therefore easier on tires than any other one-ton truck,

—is just as strong and enduring as the heaviest one-ton truck made.

Maxwell Truck Immediately Lowers Delivery Costs

The Maxwell One-Ton, Worm-Drive Truck has power enough and the chassis strength enough for a bigger, heavier truck.

Its rugged, sturdy chassis, from its reserve-powered motor to its unbreakable rear axle, is built for endurance and dependability.

It has the speed and ability to get there and back, that is not possible in a heavier truck, or with horses.

Its spare parts cost very little.

—and it will increase your delivery efficiency and immediately lower your delivery costs at least fifty per cent.

The MAXWELL ONE-TON, WORM-DRIVE TRUCK is the only truck for you to buy—its efficiency, endurance, low first-cost, and low operating cost break all previous truck records.

Come in quick and see for yourself the figures on Maxwell trucking and operating costs that are the wonder of the transportation world. Cash or easy terms while our allotment lasts.

One Ton Chassis, $985; Chassis with Cab and Windshield, $1025; Combination Box Body, $1035; Combination Box Stake Body with Cab and Windshield, $1075; Stake Gate Body with Cab and Windshield, $1080; Express Canopy Body, $1095. F. O. B. Detroit
